

Constitution of the North Carolina Seedsmen's Association

ARTICLE I

This Association shall be known as the North Carolina Seedsmen's Association.

ARTICLE II

The object of this Association shall be to discuss, promote and protect the interests of the seed trade; to create a united effort for cultivating the highest business integrity – which shall include purity and reliability of stocks, due regard for obligations, and ethical practices generally; and to promote firmer business relations between all those engaged in the trade everywhere.

ARTICLE III

The membership of the Association shall consist of voting, associate and honorary members.

The voting membership shall consist of individuals, firms, and corporations who are recognized as general seed dealers located in North Carolina.

The associate membership shall consist of individuals, firms and corporations meeting the following qualifications.

- (a) Those whose business is of an agricultural nature or related industries, and thereby brought into regular contact with the seed dealers of North Carolina.
- (b) Those recognized as seed growers, processors and/or dealers located outside the state of North Carolina.

The honorary membership shall consist of individuals or organizations upon whom the Association desires to bestow such, in accordance with the provisions of the By-Laws.
